

Cookout Contest is July 30 at the Fair

An outdoor cooking contest designed to promote Iowa meat is being planned by Fayette County Farm Bureau. Contest chair, Joni Spies, says you don't have to be an expert chef to participate - you just need to enjoy cooking outdoors with quality Iowa meat.

The county contest will be held Friday, July 30th, at the Fayette County Fairgrounds in West Union, in conjunction with the Fayette County Fair. The contest will be by the log cabin and school house on the fairgrounds. Judging will begin at 6 p.m. Prizes will be awarded in each of the six categories, as well as overall Cookout Champion, showmanship, youth and team. (For the youth category, contestant must be 13 to 18 years of age by August 1, 2010.)

Farm Bureau's cookout contest is open to anyone 13 years of age or older, who is a resident of Iowa. You do not have to be a Farm Bureau member to participate. Farm Bureau or affiliated company employees are not eligible Contestants can compete in one of six categories - beef, pork, lamb/goat, poultry, turkey or combo/specialty. Combo is a combination of at least two or more selections of the Iowa meats category/venison or any other Iowa domestically raised product (excluding wild game). You will need to bring your own grill and supplies.

If you would like to enter, please fill in and return the entry form below. Or for more information, please contact the Farm Bureau office in Fayette at 563-425-3383.
